1. I have heard both sides. The matter is worked out and disposed off with the following order :-

O R D E R

. The applicant agrees and undertakes this Court to remain present before the Commissioner, Central Excise & Customs, New Central Excise Building, Surat on 18.1.2006 at 11.00 A.M. for interrogation. The undertaking given is accepted. The Advocate for the applicant is at liberty to move an application for grant of anticipatory bail in the Sessions Court at Surat. The Advocate for the applicant states that he will file and move the application within a period of one week from today with prior notice to respondent no.1. In the circumstances, the applicant may not be arrested for a period of 10 days from today to enable him to apply for interim anticipatory bail at Surat. It is made clear that if any application is made for grant of anticipatory bail or interim anticipatory bail, the same may be disposed of by the Sessions Court on its own merits and without being influenced by the order of this Court.

. Parties to act on an ordinary copy of this order duly authenticated by the Private Secretary of this Court as a true copy.
